

Professor Tetsuo Endoh assumed an "International Collaboration Fellow" of the Sendai city

Professor Tetsuo Endoh assumed an "International Collaboration Fellow" of the Sendai city.

This is the measure of the Sendai city to try attracting foreign firms and locating future international research institutions. Four professors of Tohoku University who have conducted much collaborative researches and collaborative activities with foreign firms and research institutions assumed.

The ceremony to issue the fellow by Mayor Emiko Okuyama was held on July 26, 2012.

